Album 24 Song 5

Song 5 Remember His Holiness

Psalm 97 – Celebration of God's reign, His holiness, and the judgment of evil. Calls all the earth to rejoice and turn from idols to the Holy One.

Remember His holiness, celebrate and proclaim,
Give life to His holy words, spread abroad His name.
Love the Lord with all your heart, hate every evil way,
In the Lord alone find joy, worship Him today.

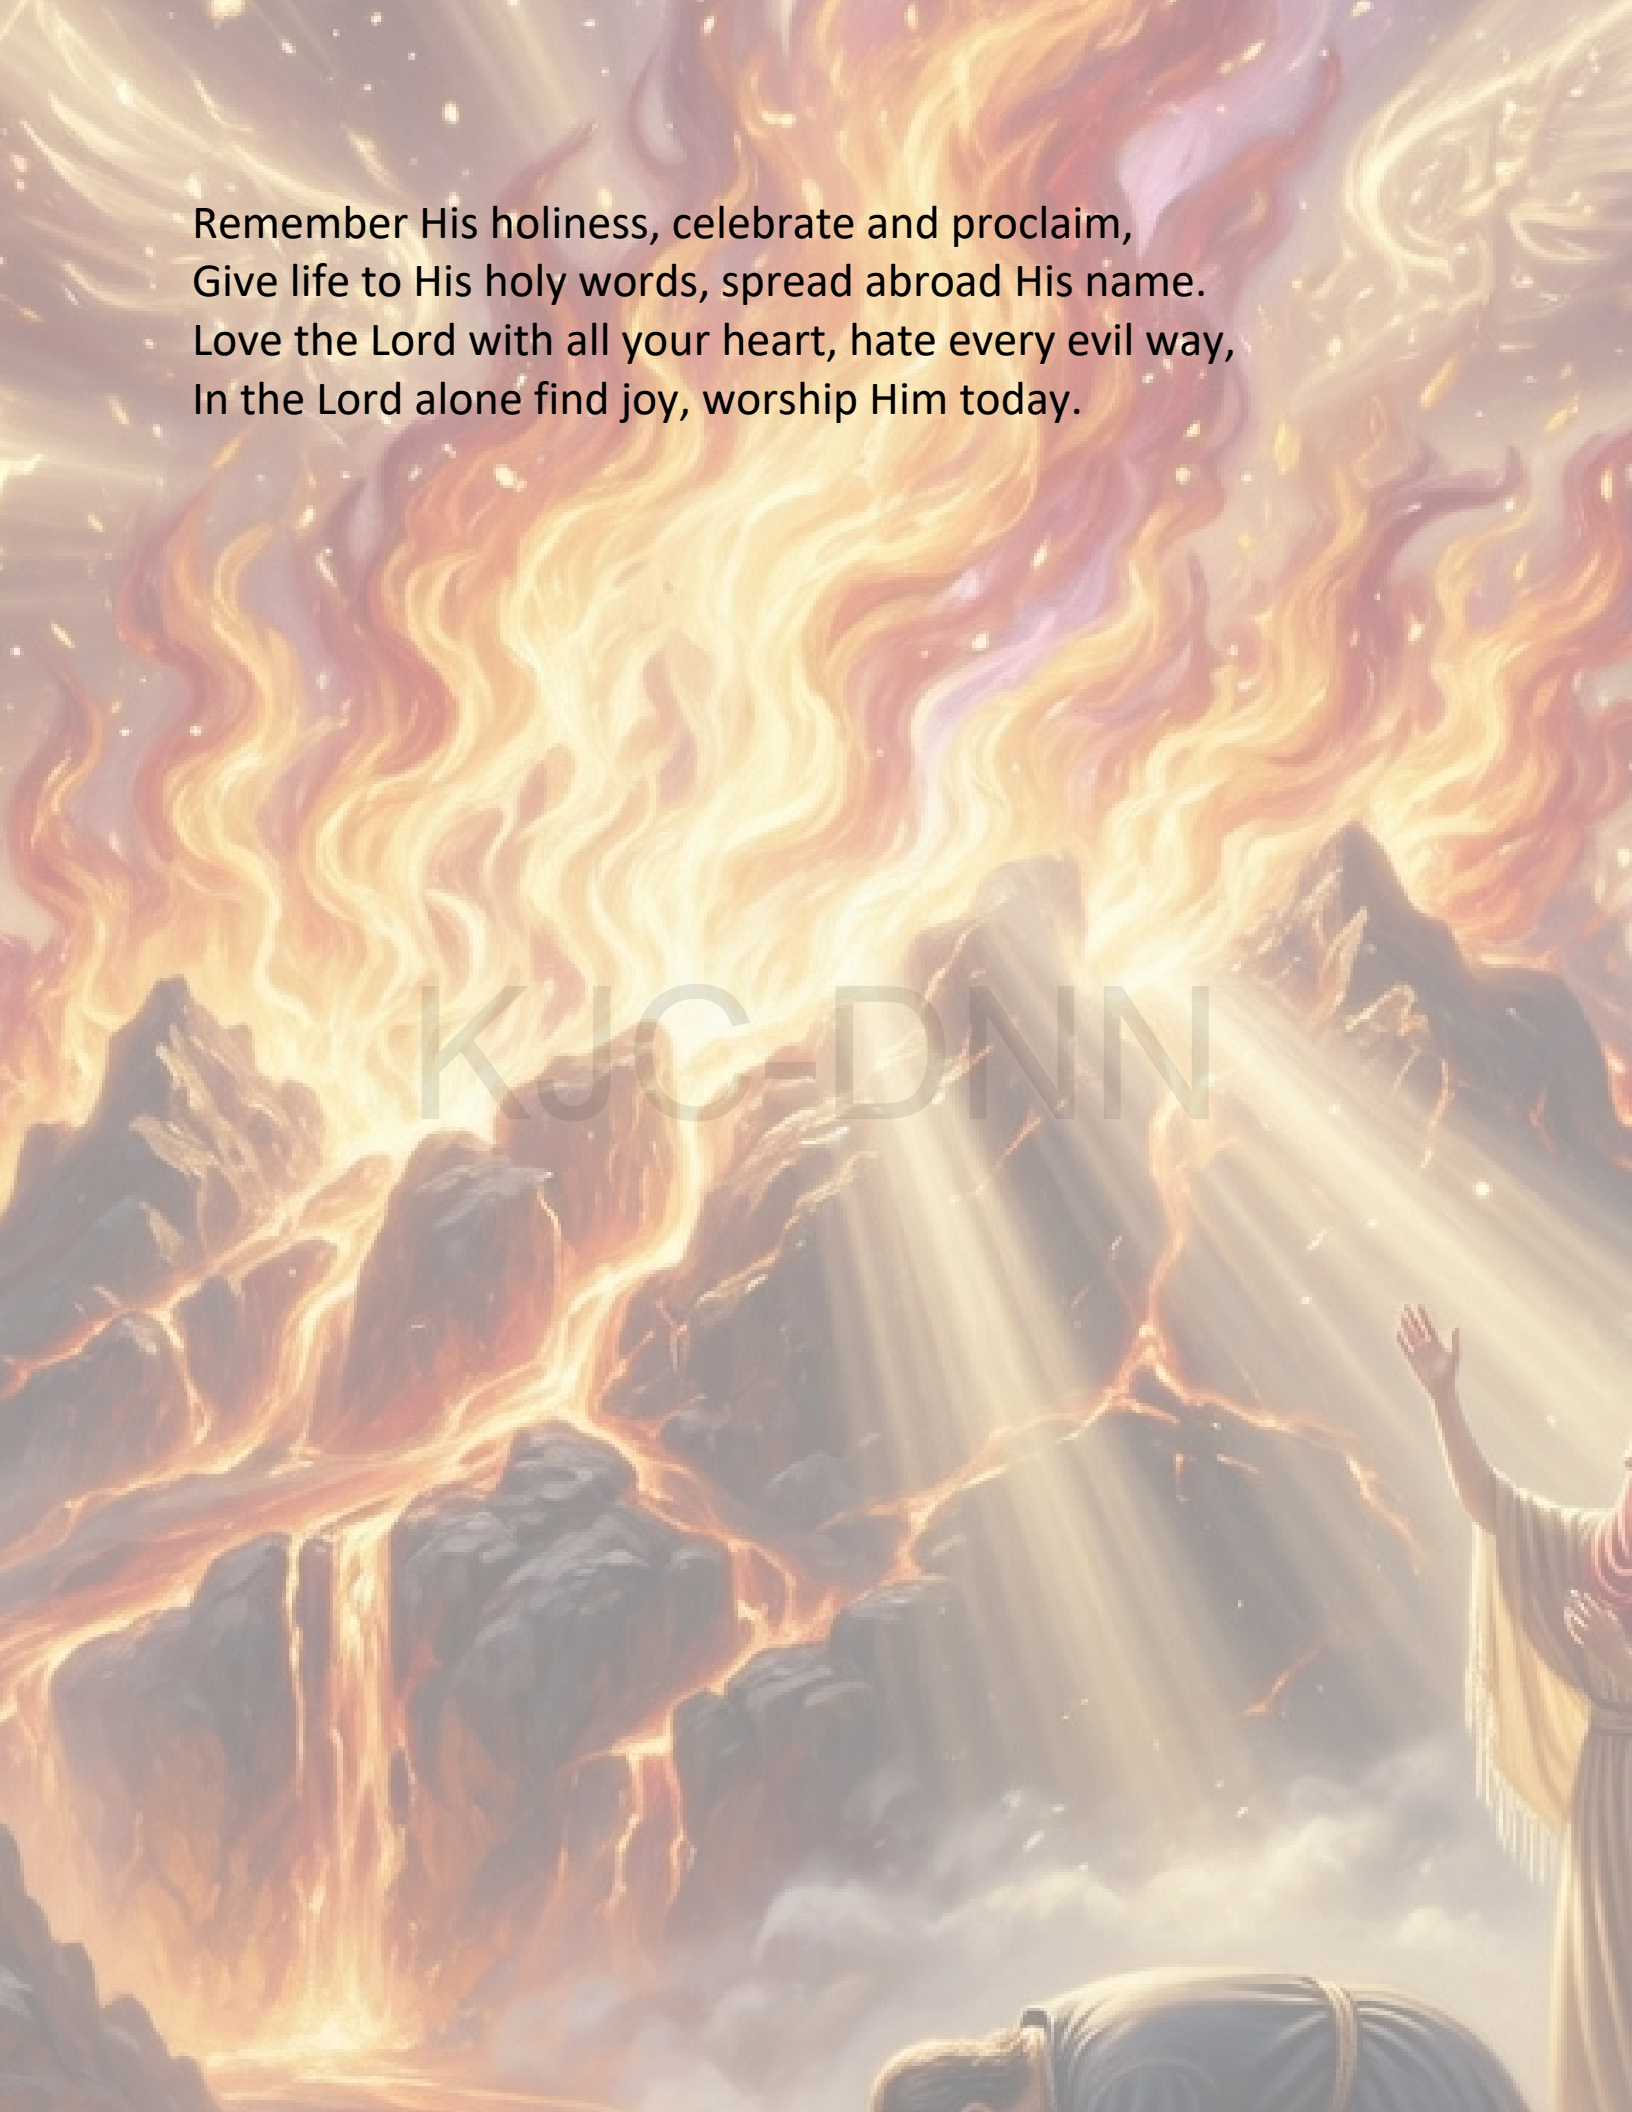
Let the earth rejoice and shout, let the islands sing with glee,
Let the heavens declare His righteousness for all to see.

Remember His holiness, celebrate and proclaim,
Give life to His holy words, spread abroad His name.
Love the Lord with all your heart, hate every evil way,
In the Lord alone find joy, worship Him today.

Mountains melt before His presence, fire consumes the foe,
Lightning flashes light the world, His glory all will know.

Remember His holiness, celebrate and proclaim,
Give life to His holy words, spread abroad His name.
Love the Lord with all your heart, hate every evil way,
In the Lord alone find joy, worship Him today.

Those who bow to idols tremble, all who serve them blush in shame,
Worship only Him forever, call upon His holy name.



Remember His holiness, celebrate and proclaim,
Give life to His holy words, spread abroad His name.
Love the Lord with all your heart, hate every evil way,
In the Lord alone find joy, worship Him today.
